YOUR PEDESTRIAN ACCIDENT CHECKLIST

Being involved in a pedestrian accident can be devastating. It's critical for you to have a meticulous attorney to make sure no details are missed in your case. To help you navigate the aftermath effectively and protect your rights so we can move forward with your personal injury claim, follow these steps to navigate this challenging situation with confidence.

☐ Stay Calm and Assess the Situation:

- Take a deep breath and remain calm.
- Check yourself and others involved and seek medical attention immediately if needed.
- Move to a safe location if possible, away from traffic.
- If unable to move, signal for help and wait for emergency services.

☐ Call Emergency Services If Needed:

- Dial 911 and police to immediately report the accident.
- Cooperate with police, file reports, and get any surveillance footage.
- Provide accurate details about the incident.

☐ Document The Evidence:

- Take photos/videos of the scene, including any vehicle involved, road conditions, traffic signals, and any visible injuries.
- Obtain contact information from the driver(s) involved.
- Obtain contact info + descriptions from any witnesses.

☐ Notate The Accident:

- Write down the time, date, and location.
- Write down the weather and traffic conditions.
- Write down any injuries.
- Did the other party admit fault?

☐ Seek Medical Attention:

- Even if you feel fine, it's crucial to seek medical attention promptly.
- Visit a doctor or go to the emergency room for a thorough evaluation.
- Keep records of all medical treatments, including doctor's visits, prescriptions, and medical bills.

Keep All Economic Records

- Hospital bills + mileage used.
- Correspondence w/ insurance.
- Documents showing the amount of time you missed work due to your injuries.
- Expert testimony from financial planners regarding potential future earnings lost.

What NOT To Do During & After The Accident

During:

- Don't leave the scene early.
- Don't decline medical attention.
- Don't engage in arguments.
- Don't discuss the crash with the other party and don't admit fault. Your words can be used as evidence.

After:

- Don't repair/dispose of any damaged clothing or personal belongings.
- Don't discuss details with insurance adjusters until you speak to us.
- Don't sign anything without legal advice.
- Don't post on social media.

DO: First attend to medical needs, documenting and gathering information, and prioritize contacting us before reaching out to insurance companies. This ensures preparation for future conversations, minimizing the risk of missing out on maximum benefits.
