YOUR RIDESHARE/TAXI ACCIDENT CHECKLIST

Being involved in a rideshare or taxi accident can be a stressful experience. To help you navigate the aftermath effectively and protect your rights so we can move forward with your personal injury claim, we've created this comprehensive checklist.

Follow these steps to ensure you're prepared and can handle the situation with confidence.

Stay Calm and Assess the Situation:

- Take a deep breath and remain calm.
- Check yourself and others involved for injuries.
- With police, move to a safe location if possible, away from traffic.

Call Emergency Services If Needed:

- Dial 911 and police to immediately report the accident.
- Request medical assistance if anyone is injured.
- Cooperate with police, file reports, and get any surveillance footage.

Document The Evidence:

- Take photos/videos of the scene, including vehicle damages, road conditions, location, and any visible injuries to anyone involved.
- Exchange or take photos of contact and insurance information with the driver(s) involved.
- Obtain contact info + descriptions from any witnesses.
- Keep any clothing or personal belongings damaged during the accident as evidence.

Record & Notify The Accident:

- Notate the time, date, and location.
- Notate the weather, road hazards, and traffic conditions.
- Write down any injuries.
- Did anyone admit fault?
- Report the accident to the rideshare company or taxi service involved in the incident.
- Follow any procedures or instructions provided by the company for reporting accidents.

Seek Aftercare Medical Attention:

- Even if you feel fine, it's crucial to seek medical attention promptly.
- Visit a doctor or go to the emergency room for a thorough evaluation.
- Keep records of all medical treatments, including doctor's visits, prescriptions, and medical bills.

Keep All Economic Records

- All medical records, bills + mileage used.
- Documents showing the amount of time you missed work due to your injuries.
- Expert testimony from financial planners regarding potential future earnings lost.
- Pay stubs.

What NOT To Do During & After The Accident

During:

- Don't leave the scene.
- Don't delay medical treatment.
- Don't post on social media.
- Don't admit fault.
- Don't sign documents or make any recorded statements.

After:

- Don't sign any papers to agree to any damages.
- Don't give details to other insurance companies.
- Don't agree to any payments without talking to a lawyer.

DO: First attend to medical needs, documenting and gathering information, and prioritize contacting us before reaching out to insurance companies. This ensures preparation for future conversations, minimizing the risk of missing out on maximum benefits.

We know rideshare and taxi accidents can be unsettling, but with the right support, they don't have to be. At Howard Injury Law, we're always here to stand by you as your experienced legal team of attorneys.
