YOUR SLIP & FALL CHECKLIST

A slip and fall accident can result in serious injuries and significant damages. Our comprehensive checklist is designed to assist you in navigating the aftermath of a slip and fall incident and pursuing maximum compensation for your injuries. Follow these essential steps to protect your rights and ensure you receive the support you deserve.

☐ Document the Scene:

- Take photos of the accident scene, including the hazardous condition that caused your fall, such as wet floors, debris, uneven surfaces, broken tiles, or obstacles.
- If unable to move, signal for help and wait for emergency services.
- Take photos of anything that appears to be surveillance, which may have been monitoring the area.
- If you tripped due to a raised sidewalk, use a ruler to measure and document the displacement where you tripped.
- If you experienced unsafe stairs, photograph the stairs, capture the handrails or lack thereof, and measure the risers to determine their evenness.

☐ Seek Medical Attention:

- Seek medical attention immediately, even if your injuries may seem minor at first.
- Document all medical treatment received, including visits to doctors, hospitals, or physical therapy sessions.

☐ Report the Incident:

- Report the accident to the property owner, manager, or relevant authority as soon as possible.
- Obtain a copy of any incident reports or documentation completed by the property owner or manager.
- Take a picture of the report just in case they decide they do not want to provide you a copy.
- Obtain contact info + written descriptions from any witnesses.

☐ Notate The Accident:

- Write down the time, date, and location.
- Note the lighting conditions.
- Did the other party admit fault?

Keep All Economic Records

- Retain any medical records or receipts related to your injuries and treatment.
- Documents showing the amount of time you missed work due to your injuries.
- Expert testimony from financial planners regarding potential future earnings lost.

What NOT To Do During & After The Accident

At the Scene:

- Don't leave the scene early.
- Don't decline medical attention.
- Don't engage in arguments.
- Don't admit fault to the property owner, insurance adjusters, or anyone else involved.

After:

- Don't repair/dispose of any damaged clothing or personal belongings.
- Don't discuss details with insurance adjusters until you speak to us.
- Don't sign anything without legal advice.
- Don't post on social media.

DO: First attend to medical needs, documenting and gathering information, transportation receipts or mileage due to treatment, and prioritize contacting us before reaching out to insurance companies. This ensures preparation for future conversations, minimizing the risk of missing out on maximum benefits.

We know slip and fall accidents can be unsettling, but with the right support, they don't have to be. At Howard Injury Law, we're always here to stand by you as your experienced legal team of attorneys.
